JUDGMENT

The learned Government Pleader submits that this petition must now become unnecessary, inasmuch as the investigation is being conducted now, not by the Sub Inspector of Police Nedupuzha, but by the C.I. Of Police Cherpu. It is further submitted that steps are being taken by the present Investigating Officer to take the necessary document into the custody and forward it to the expert. The necessary steps shall be taken within two weeks, submits the learned Government Pleader. In the light of the above submission, no further steps are necessary in this writ petition. Primarily the petitioner's prayer is that the investigation may be directed to be conducted by any official other than the Sub Inspector of Police, Nedupuzha and for issue of directions to seize the necessary documents.

This writ petition is hence dismissed as agreed.
